THE RIGHT RESULTS, THE FIRST TIME

Avoid inefficiencies with a 93% first-pass yield[1]

When important patient care decisions are on the line, you need results you can count on—the first time. The DxH 900 hematology analyzer first-pass yield enables predictable costs and maximizes staff time by:

- Delivering accurate results with fewer reruns using near native-state cellular characterization and DataFusion technology—a unique combination of multiple testing methods for precise, high-resolution analysis in a single run
- Ensuring predictable costs through industry-leading 93% first-pass throughput[1] for accurate flagging and a reduced number of slide reviews
- Maximizing staff time by reducing the time and supply costs related to managing systems with higher repeat rates, and simplifying workflow through a lean reagent portfolio

Learn more about how laboratories can achieve Lean practices and minimize repeat rates with the DxH 900 analyzer.

Visit www.beckmancoulter.com/dxh900-MLO

1. Percentage of samples with numerical results that do not require additional intervention or handling, such as manual smear review, spun hematocrit, dilution, or other repeat/reflex testing. DxH series side-by-side results documentation.
